The groundbreaking LEAP Study discovered that introducing peanut products to infants early can reduce the risk of developing a peanut allergy by up to 86%.

Preventpeanutallergies.org